

British Society of Physical & Rehabilitation Medicine

Scottish Summer Meeting 19th June 2026,

UHI House, Old Perth Rd, Inverness IV2 3JH

|       |                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                  |
|-------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 09.00 | Registration                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                  |
| 09.20 | Introduction and Housekeeping                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                  |
| 09.30 | Dr Emma BurtonInterim Head ofNeuropsychology,NHS Highland                                                                    | Common neuropsychologicaldifficulties in MS                                                                          |
| 10.15 | Dr Katharine JonesGP and founder of Wild-NessHealth, Scottish Highlands                                                          | A Structured ConsultationApproach for Pattern-BasedPresentations: EmergingEvidence and Clinical Experience |
| 11.00 | Break                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                  |
| 11.15 | Dr Alasdair FitzgeraldNeurorehabilitation Consultant,NHS Lothian                                                                 | The Management of ProlongedDisorders of Consciousness inScotland                                                |
| 12.15 | Lunch                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                  |
| 13.15 | Dr Heather IrelandConsultant Psychiatrist andPsychotherapist, NHS Highland                                                       | Complex capacity assessment - acriteria and principle-drivenmultidisciplinary approach                          |
| 14.00 | Dr Janet ScottConsultant in Infectious diseaseand Senior Clinical Lecturer inpost-acute infection syndromes,NHS Highland | Post Infection and AssociatedComplex Chronic Syndromes –Beyond Long Covid                                       |
| 14.45 | Break                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                  |
| 15.00 | Scottish Branch BSPRM business meeting (BSPRM members only)                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                  |
| 16.30 | Close                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                  |

Registration is by email to juliet.reid@nhs.scot no later than 14th June 2026

Entry is free but participants must be registered

Lunch and hot drinks will be provided

Merz Pharma UK Ltd have provided funds toward the running of this meeting but have not had any influence on the agenda

THERAPEUTICS